

Charles T. Bauer Professorship in Science

PETER S. HYDE

For his commitment to the scientific enterprise—research, analysis, and conclusions

For his ability to reveal the complexity and excitement of science to a range of boys from sixies to seniors, of varying interests and abilities

For his dedication to the teacher-coach model and his effectiveness leading successful teams in soccer and tennis

For embodying the generalist proposition as scholar, scientist, teacher, athlete, and musician

For his thoughtful care and concern for his advisees as they navigate the challenges of adolescence

For his fidelity to Roxbury Latin, its mission, and its aspirations
