

The Roxbury Latin School

The

KERRY P. BRENNAN

Chair in Music

For instilling in decades of Roxbury Latin boys the rewards, challenges, and joys of making music

For sharing profusely his talent and passion for singing and performing

For conveying deep pride in his Schenectady upbringing and Amherst College burgeoning

For demonstrating an unwavering commitment to continuing and building upon an exemplary boys' school music program, and for expertly co-conducting RL's Glee Club

For imagining and manifesting ways in which to introduce RL's talented student singers to delighted audiences, near and far

For knowing and loving well the boys in his care, and for championing them at every opportunity

For affirming—in words and in actions—the traditions, rituals, spirit, and values of this “Little Nursery”

For decades of leadership and loving service to Roxbury Latin—as headmaster, teacher, advisor, coach—and for aiming unapologetically high on behalf of this school and its people.

Installed this 5th day of January 2026

---

Samuel L. Schaffer, Head of School